

Managing Alerts in Blackboard:

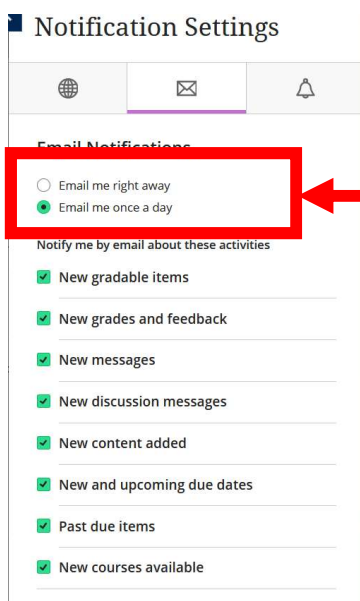

1. Sign into blackboard: <https://blackboard.wvup.edu>
2. On the main menu, click on your name.

3. On the right side, click on Email Notifications

4. From this menu, you can decide what alerts you get and how frequent you will be receiving those alerts.

Email me once a day: you will get a report of all the changes (if any) that occurred for the specific day. (36 actions = 1 email with 36 entries on it)

Email me right away: you will get an alert every time a student makes a change based on what alerts you have set up. (36 actions = 36 individual emails)
